

Esther Lee Leach is the Vice President, Development & Fundraising at Downtown Denver Partnership. She is also the Publisher and Editor-in-Chief of Cherry Creek Fashion Magazine, a digital style publication focused on building an inclusive community and showcasing diverse voices and talent. Esther grew up on the Caribbean Island of Saint Lucia and has now settled in Cherry Creek after living in San Francisco, New York and London. She holds a Master of Arts degree in Fashion Journalism from the University of the Arts London: London College of Fashion, and has experience as a journalist, fashion editor, photographer, television host, film/television producer, community builder and event planner. Esther is a board member of Biennial of the Americas, which creates connections and builds community across the Americas. She is also on the board of Cherry Arts; its nonprofit mission provides access to art experiences and supports arts education via the Cherry Creek Arts Festival, and statewide art education programs. Esther's third board appointment is the Cherry Creek Chamber of Commerce and was recently awarded the Gervasini Community Leader of the Year Award for Cherry Creek by the Chamber of Commerce. Getting involved in National Jewish Health and 5280 Air Society continues Esther's main focus and commitment to community involvement.
