

Lara is a Denver local and has been involved with National Jewish Health since high school when she climbed Mt. Kilimanjaro to raise money for the hospital. She first got involved with 5280 Air Society while she was living and working in New York City and has continued her involvement since moving back to Denver in 2016. Lara works in commercial real estate for Legend Partners with a focus on retail and restaurant work.