

Larina is committed to supporting friends and colleagues personally and professionally by being a connector. She loves when others benefit from meeting each other. Larina got involved with the 5280 AIR Society to continue to expand her network and support various causes and people as much as she can.