

February 25, 2016

Dear Prospective Exhibitor:

We are announcing the 21st Annual Regional Allied Health Conference: Current Perspectives in Asthma, Allergy & Pulmonary Practice to be held at National Jewish Health in Denver, Colorado on Friday, September 9, 2016. We would like to request a display fee of $500 for your participation in this conference. Now is the time to reserve your exhibit space! Space is limited and we sold out last year.

We are certain that you will find this conference to be relevant to your marketing goals. When you exhibit at the 21st Annual Regional Allied Health Conference, you will have the opportunity to:

- Increase your company's visibility in the respiratory, allergy, and pulmonary community;
- Share your company's newest advancements with allied health professionals who are eager to learn;
- Interact and network directly with current and potential customers;
- Discover new information, fresh ideas, and future industry directions.

National Jewish Health is known worldwide for treatment of patients with respiratory, immune, allergic and infectious diseases, and for groundbreaking medical research. In addition, National Jewish has been the leading respiratory hospital in the nation for 116 years.

For more information and to see the agenda, please go to www.njhealth.org/AlliedHealthcare. Please contact Mandy Comeau in the Office of Professional Education at (303) 728-6585 or ComeauM@njhealth.org with questions and to keep us informed of your company's interest in exhibiting at this conference,

In closing, we want to thank you again for your continued support of the Department of Nursing activities at National Jewish Health.

Sincerely,

Ann Mullen, RN, MSN, CNS, AE-C
Patient Education Coordinator
Conference Program Chair
