

Los Angeles Professionals Support Nation's #1 Respiratory Hospital at Cocktails for a Cause Today

JUNE 02, 2011

DENVER — A dedicated community of financial, law, apparel and other professional services leaders in Los Angeles will show their support for National Jewish Health today, June 2 at the 2011 Cocktails for a Cause at The Mark for Events at 9320 West Pico Boulevard in Los Angeles. Leaders of the event, many of whom have supported National Jewish Health for years, include chairman Mark D. Brutzkus of Ezra Brutzkus Gubner LLP.

National Jewish Health is known worldwide for treatment of patients with respiratory, cardiac, immune and related disorders, and for groundbreaking medical research. Founded in 1899 as a nonprofit hospital, National Jewish Health remains the only facility in the world dedicated exclusively to these disorders. Since 1998, U.S. News & World Report has ranked National Jewish Health the #1 respiratory hospital in the nation.

The Denver institution treats patients from across the country and around the world, including 684 patients from California in the last three years. In that time, National Jewish Health provided $82,000 in charity care to California patients. Last year, National Jewish Health physicians and nurses also provided their expertise to 6,535 California doctors and residents through advice on the toll-free LungLine® and Physician Line services; 78 doctors who trained at National Jewish Health now practice in the state.

Other members of the event committee include Vicky Balmot; Darrin M. Beer, CIT Group, Commercial Services; Gail Bernstein, PNC Business Credit; Gail Boyle, Union Bank; Mitchell F. Cohen, CIT Group, Commercial Services; Barry C. Cohn, Cohn Handler & Company; Bruce Corbin; Michael Earnhart, Wells Fargo Trade Capital; Martin A.
