

Twenty-One National Jewish Health Doctors Named "America's Top Doctors"

JULY 27, 2012

DENVER — Twenty-one National Jewish Health physicians are among the best in the nation by U.S. News & World Report and Castle Connolly Medical, Ltd. More than 230,000 doctors were surveyed to compile the list of physicians recognized by their peers for excellence in different specialties. Less than one-percent of doctors nationwide are chosen for this honor.

U.S. News Top Doctors builds on the Best Hospitals rankings, which U.S. News updates each year. Earlier this year, National Jewish Health was ranked the #1 respiratory hospital in the nation for the 14th consecutive year.
