

Richard Mack of AREA Property Partners to Chair June 13 AIR Society Event in Tribeca

JUNE 11, 2013

DENVER —

Funds Raised at Event Hosted by Roger Silverstein and Jason Pizer to Benefit Nation's #1 Respiratory Hospital, National Jewish Health

Richard Mack, North America CEO of AREA Property Partners, will chair the 2013 "The Sky's the Limit" cocktail party, presented by the New York AIR Society on June 13 at Three Sixty^o in Tribeca. The party, which benefits National Jewish Health, will feature an open bar, guest DJ, dancing and prizes. Tickets to the event are $500 and are available online.

The AIR Society was formed 22 years ago to inspire young professionals to engage in fundraising activities on behalf of National Jewish Health, the number one respiratory hospital in the nation according to U.S. News & World Report, and a world-renowned research center. AIR Society members have raised more than $3 million to fund research, patient care and educational programs at National Jewish Health. AIR Society Co-Chairs are Roger Silverstein, executive vice president of Silverstein Properties Inc., and Jason Pizer, president of Trinity Real Estate.
