

Sold Out - 2014 Beaux Arts Ball Presented by the Morgridge Family Foundation

Gala Benefiting National Jewish Health Draws More Than 1,200 Guests on February 22

FEBRUARY 14, 2014

DENVER, CO — The 2014 Beaux Arts Ball presented by the Morgridge Family Foundation is sold out, making it one of the hottest tickets in town. The “Gatsby” themed gala on Feb. 22 will bring the glamour of the Roaring '20s to the Hyatt Regency Denver at Colorado Convention Center and to the more than 1,200 guests now set to attend.

The Beaux Arts Ball benefits National Jewish Health, the nation’s leading respiratory hospital. The sold-out crowd will help National Jewish Health honor the event’s Grand Marshals Kathy and Ted Brown, Robin and Cole Finegan, Tim Gill and Scott Miller, and Debbie and Don Silversmith. The four couples are being recognized for their philanthropy and influence in the Denver community.

A VIP list for those who hope to snag a last-minute open seat has been established. Find out more by contacting Clem Connolly at 303.728.6546 or ConnollyC@NJHealth.org.

Each year, the Beaux Arts Ball raises millions of dollars to support the research and care of children and adults with respiratory, allergic, cardiac, immune and related diseases at National Jewish Health. The event is the largest in Denver for National Jewish Health and is supported by presenting sponsor Morgridge Family Foundation; platinum sponsors Joyce Zeff, First Western Trust Bank, The Gill Foundation, Noble Energy and Sage Hospitality; and dozens of other individuals and companies.

National Jewish Health is the leading respiratory hospital in the nation. Founded 124 years ago as a nonprofit hospital, National Jewish Health today is the only facility in the world dedicated exclusively to groundbreaking medical research and treatment of patients with respiratory, cardiac, immune and related disorders. Patients and families come to National Jewish Health from around the world to receive cutting-edge, comprehensive, coordinated care. To learn more, visit the media resources page.
