

Oncologist Shivani Shinde, MD, Joins National Jewish Health

FEBRUARY 22, 2017

DENVER — Shivani Shinde, MD, MPH, has joined the pulmonary faculty at National Jewish Health in the Division of Oncology. She comes to National Jewish Health from Mayo Clinic, where she completed her medical oncology and hematology fellowship. Dr. Shinde has extensive experience treating all cancers and hematologic disorders. She will see patients at the National Jewish Health main campus in Denver as well as at National Jewish Health Northern Hematology-Oncology location.

Dr. Shinde received her medical degree at Grant Medical College in Mumbai, India. She served her residency at University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Dr. Shinde completed fellowships in hospice and palliative care at Cleveland Clinic and in medical oncology and hematology at Mayo Clinic. In addition, she received her Master of Public Health at University of Texas Health Science Center.

National Jewish Health is the leading respiratory hospital in the nation. Founded 124 years ago as a nonprofit hospital, National Jewish Health today is the only facility in the world dedicated exclusively to groundbreaking medical research and treatment of patients with respiratory, cardiac, immune and related disorders. Patients and families come to National Jewish Health from around the world to receive cutting-edge, comprehensive, coordinated care. To learn more, visit the media resources page.

Media Contacts

Our team is available to arrange interviews, discuss events and story ideas.

Jessica Berry
303.398.1082
berryj@njhealth.org