FEBRUARY 13, 2018

DENVER — Deborah Hong, MD, has joined the faculty at National Jewish Health in the Section of Sleep Medicine and Division of Pulmonary, Critical Care and Sleep Medicine at National Jewish Health. She comes to National Jewish Health following her fellowship training in sleep medicine at the University of California, Los Angeles. Dr. Hong sees both adult and pediatric sleep patients in her clinic. Her experience and expertise allow National Jewish Health for Kids to conduct sleep studies on children as young as 6 years old. Dr. Hong's clinical practice is located at the National Jewish Health main campus in Denver.

Dr. Hong received her medical degree at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, and completed her residency at Kaiser Permanente in Fontana, CA. She has clinical interest in neuromuscular sleep disorders and parasomnias. Dr. Hong is fluent in English and Spanish, and is conversational in Korean.
