

National Jewish Health Raises More than $370,000 at Black & White Ball

JUNE 15, 2022

LOS ANGELES — On May 21, 2022, National Jewish Health, the nation's leading respiratory hospital held their annual Black & White Ball with support of the Los Angeles professional services industry. The event raised more than $370,000 to support National Jewish Health and the adults and children it serves across the country.

More than 350 guests attended the Moulin Rouge themed event, presented by IDB Bank, at the InterContinental Los Angeles Downtown.

For more than 50 years, the Los Angeles professional services industry has gathered for a dinner to support National Jewish Health and honor members of their profession. Proceeds from the Black & White Ball help advance compassionate care and groundbreaking research for children and adults with lung, heart, immune and related diseases.

This year, the event honored Michael A. Hoyal, Chief Financial Officer for The ActOne Group, and Kiyoun Kim, executive vice president and regional manager for California at IDB Bank. Each of these individuals received the the Humanitarian Award, which is recognizes individuals across the country who have made significant civic and charitable contributions to their communities and professions.

Hoyal's son, Ladd Hoyal, presented the award to his father, stepping in for honoree co-chair Michael Rosenthal of Baronthal Ventures. Kim received her award from honoree co-chair Moti Levy-Tsedek of IDB Bank.

"National Jewish Health does important work. To be associated with and recognized by this outstanding organization is a great honor," expressed Hoyal. "We are proud to support this mission."

"Thank you for this unique opportunity to have a deeper and more intimate understanding of all that National Jewish Health does, and to be able to share it with my dear colleagues, clients, friends and family," added Kim.

The dinner co-chairs, who serve on the National Jewish Health Council of Trustees and are past honorees, included: Gail K. Bernstein; Sydnee Breuer of Rosenthal & Rosenthal of California; Robert Ezra of Freeman, Freeman & Smiley LLP; Ronald S. Friedman of Marcum LLP; William Mark Levinson of Carlton Fields LLP; and Debbie Steinberg. Top sponsors were IDB Bank, The ActOne Group and Rosenthal & Rosenthal of California.

For event information please contact Clem Connolly at 303.728.6546 or ConnollyC@njhealth.org.

National Jewish Health is the leading respiratory hospital in the nation. Founded 124 years ago as a nonprofit hospital, National Jewish Health today is the only facility in the world dedicated exclusively to groundbreaking medical research and treatment of patients with respiratory, cardiac, immune and related disorders. Patients and families come to National Jewish Health from around the world to receive cutting-edge, comprehensive, coordinated care. To learn more, visit the media resources page.

Media Contacts

Our team is available to arrange interviews, discuss events and story ideas.

Jessica Berry
303.398.1082
berryj@njhealth.org